Dear Sir,

I acknowledge receipt of your letter to His Excellency of May 8th.

Though His Excellency fully appreciates the circumstances which have prompted you to apply for leave and deeply deplures the loss you have sustained through the death of your mother, yet he himself is unable to grant you any leave.

The granting of leave is not in his power, but in that of the Medical authorities in England. Hence your letter has been forwarded to the Pay and Record Office for the consideration of the Medical authorities.

Yours faithfully

May 8th. 1917.

To His Excellency, Sir W. E. Davidson K. C. M. G.

May It Please Your Excellency,

I am twenty-six months in the Regiment, fifteen of which I have been at the front.

Have been all through the Gallipoli Campaign, Egypt, and being in France twice. Have been wounded twice first on July 1st, and again on April 14th. From the wound, which is in the leg, I am still suffering. While on Gallipoli, my mother died and I would like to go home and see my Father, before going out to France again. If your Excellency would grant me furlough home, to St John's. I would be very thankful, and would in duty forever pray.

I remain your humble servant

Would you kindly look into the matter why no money came for me.

The day before leaving for Cape Ray, I was informed, at the Department of Militia that my account was transferred to Headquarters & that in future I would be paid from Headquarters.

As I have received no pay since August 15th past.

Would you be kind enough to look the matter up.

No 18/15

Dear May:-

Jacks letter telling of mothers death came a few days ago. And I have answered it. Hope he will get it alright. The sad news of another death came before I received Jacks letter and it was just as much as I could bear. Poor mothers death is a terrible loss to you and to us all, but God will grant us strength to bear our loss. ^{sad} a loss to us indeed.

The last letter I had from mother was so cheerfull, and she spoke of "that glorious day of our return, when I would return again to Home and mother" That letter I will cherish while I live, but it seems awfull hard to realize, that no mother will be there when I return. For I am ⁱⁿ hopes of coming through safe, and I am trusting to your prayers, and those of my friends to do so. And now May you must try and be a mother to us all.

And anything I can do for you I will My allotment now goes to you. You can draw it, or Jack can draw it for you. We must help one another, and what ever little help I can give it will be given cheerfully. In Jack's letter I told him. He can help with my money to defray the funeral expenses, and to have some masses said for Mother, I pray for her every morning & night.
 Although I believe she is in Heaven. In the Presence of Him Enjoying the Light of Gods Sunshine and Happiness in that Heavenly Home beyond the Grave. Where all is Sunshine and Happiness. Every night I dream of her last night I dreamt she seemed to float right up to me, I kissed her, and then she seemed to vanish. You must write to me now ~~as~~ just like mother used, and I will be only too glad to answer. Joes letter came a few days ago. He promised to write again given better particulars and I am expecting another from him shortly

Jacks letter letter was a masterpiece of penmanship and would have conveyed the sad news in a way, and as gently as could be done.
 But I knew, for twelve days before, that she, whom we loved so much had passed away. However, Gods Will be done and we must bear our trouble, as best as we can, and be resigned to His Holy Will.
 How is Dad, and how does he bear it For myself, I am getting along as well as can be expected. You must not worry to much nor imagine we are in all kinds of danger, You will wear yourself out if you do. Our boys are doing first rate work, and I am all right.
 And I know you are praying for me, and I feel that your prayers, & those at Home and of my friends will be answered. May God ^{you} Bless, ^{you} and may He send you with Dad, Joe & Jack.
 A Happy Xmas, or at least as Happy as can be expected, is the sincere wish of your loving brother Ed.
