money belong to me there as I am in grate need of it know as I have not received half the money the other boys have got, and it is no more than just that each one should be treated alike as I enlisted whole boys of Newfound land stayed at home being of American birth it was a great sacrifice on my part, thanking you for any information ^{about} my money matter or medals due me.

I am Respectfully.

Dear Sir,

Having received a letter from Richard Lawler stating that he had received the money that was due to me, for services that I done with the 1st.
9th of L. D. Reg, and my number was # 477. - as I have never received any money.

And my Uncle stated

but money is a very tempting thing.

Regretting to cause
you so much trouble, I would be very grateful for a reply for the same.

that he received it all right and he wrote to me and wanted to know what way he would send it, as there is some mistake some where.

And I would like to know the amount that was paid to him and how it was paid. I received a ribbon about a year and a half ago and that was it. got but the letter was opened when it got to me, as I do not want to accuse any one of wrong

Receipt of the same should be acknowledged hereon.
