July 20, 1916.

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a cablegram intimating that your son, Private Samuel John Learning, had died of wounds at the 19th Casualty Clearing Station on the 4th instant.

Permit me to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones but no doubt it will be some consolation to you to think that your brave boy early answered the call of King and Country, did his part nobly and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. We are proud of our gallant boys and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so willingly gave their sons when the Call of Duty came. Though your boy has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory and his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. When the victory is won and Peace again reigns upon this earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that, in this glorious achievement, your boy bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all at this time.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Mr. Absalom J. Learning,
