Referring to your letter of 17th inst, on the subject of the wife of No.96 L/C D.Lewis, who apparently has made no allotment, nor as far as I am aware any arrangement so that his wife receives any of his pay; it is naturally rather difficult for me to do anything in the matter without his consent, and postal communication with the Battalion is a lengthy and doubtful expedient; but having regard to the circumstances of the case generally and without prejudice, I will try and make a special arrangement. Dear Mrs. Astell,-

I have to thank you for yours with enclosed re Mrs.Lewis. I went and saw her today and got her marriage certificate- She was a domestic servant prior to her wedding, and since then she has lived with her father and mother. Her father is in good service with Mr.Duncan, farmer at Stynie, and the home is clean and comfortable. Mrs.Lewis says she got £1 a week from her husband until August, when he left for the Dardanelles- She says her husband had spoken to his officer about her allowance, but why it had not been carried through she could not tell. She had saved a little money, while she was receiving the £1 per week, but that is almost gone- She is not badly off as yet, having plenty clothes and a comfortable home, but with the arrival of her baby a few months hence, she will be in need of money.

Yours truly,

(Sd.) (Mrs) Elsie Marshall.

Please return marriage certificate.

Referring to your letter 25/11/15 I return

I propose to make a special case of this and without prejudice, for as pointed out in my No.1906/1 it is hardly in order to make payments on account of a man without his consent, but from Mrs.Marshall's letter it would appear that so far as Mrs.Lewis is aware her husband had applied to his Company Commander but his request does not appear to have been carried out. I am communicating with ^{the letter} him, but it is doubtful if and when I may receive a reply.

Madam,-

Referring to your communication 11/12/15, I enclose cheque £4.0.6, representing 28 day's Allotment at 70 cents, which brings the payment as nearly as possible to £1/ per week, this arrangement commencing from 29/10/15 which I think should meet the case. I may say that the ^{pay} periods are of 28 days ending every fourth Friday. Whilst men are in this Country they are paid weekly, and their allottees every fourth week. The next pay period will end 24/12/15, when four week's Allotment will be sent through you to Mrs. Lewis, at the same time and as in the cases of other allottees resident in this Country. Meanwhile since this is a back payment it is dealt with in manner at present indicated.

It should be clearly understood that this is done without prejudice, only under the peculiar circumstances reflected in correspondence exchanged, and on the assumption that it was the intention of Lewis that his payments to his wife should continue but the necessary arrangements were presumably overlooked by his Company Officer, and that Lewis did not therefore make an Allotment
