30, William Street,

April 10th., 1920.

Major Parsons,

City.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of yours of a late date re my re-boarding.

I would ask you to discontinue my pension from this month. I think I can live without it seeing that I have been given an increase since I was retired.

$5.32 per month is not much in these days and I think such a pension would not help a fellow out very much.

Trusting you will oblige.

Thankfully.

(Sgd) 2 LT. I. M. MIDSTONE.

April 15. 20.

The Board of Pensions Commissioners.

Yours faithfully,

R. R. Wood.

Headmaster.

Sir,

1. We have the honour to request that you consider our position with relation to prospective commissions.
2. We have been informed from headquarters that on completion of our course, we are not likely to obtain anything; only, subject to the doubtful possibility of being put on the reserve of Officers, which we consider would be of no benefit to us.
3. When we came here we went to extra expenses, of course expecting to be gazetted on completion of course. It is rather hard luck, because we may have gained promotion with the regiment and also, this course puts us to a greater expense.
4. All Australian Cadets are being granted commissions at the beginning of the New Year, without gratuity.
5. Would it not be possible for something to be done with us, or some allowance made.
6. Hoping we have not trespassed too far, and you will favour us with a reply.

We have the honour to be
