Mrs. Maddigan,

Dear Madam:- 183 E/Cpl. M.J. Maddigan

The Pay Office, London has been notified that you were applying for leave for the above mentioned soldier, and it was stated that you were ~~satisfied~~ to pay travelling expenses. Reply has been received stating that furlough to Nfld. cannot be granted, except in the case of men for discharge who are being repatriated. However, the message further states that a letter is following, and it is presumed that the present condition of L/Cpl. Maddigan, is not known; it is expected that further particulars will be to hand on receipt of that letter.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

 Major, C.S.O.
