Mr. Michael Madden,
King's Cove,
B.B.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of Mar 23rd has been duly received and contents noted.

I have to inform you with regards to your enquiry as to whether the uniform of your son will be forwarded to you, that this is not a part of a deceased soldier's effects. The only articles forwarded to the next of kin of deceased soldiers are his personal effects recoverable.

During the early part of the war some uniforms of deceased soldiers were despatched to the next of kin, but this procedure was later discontinued, as uniforms were the property of Regiment, and were not considered personal effects.

Yours faithfully,
Lieut.-Col.,
Chief Staff Officer
