Mr. P. J. McGrath:

Dear Sir -

A mistake has continually been made in Private Robert Macdonald's Report Number - especially in the matter of the allotment - which you Number 2577. His correct number being 2587. At least that is the number by which he is known before leaving here & also the number of his Kit.

This may or may not make much difference, and it may

It is very important that his number be correct: Will you kindly let me know on which side the mistake is being made.

I Oblige

Dear Madam:-

Referring to your recent letter to Hon. Dr. McGrath, I beg to state that there is no mistake in the matter of Private Maidment's number. The number which appears on the cheques you receive, is not his regimental number, but merely the number of the form on which his allotment is made out.

Yours truly,

Deputy Paymaster
