Dear Sir,

It was with the deepest regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a telegram intimating that your son, Augustine Joseph Manning, had been unofficially reported killed in action on the 3rd June inst. Permit me to express to you, on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, its profound sympathy in your bereavement. While we cannot avoid the sense of loss and sorrow when our loved ones pass from this life, yet it must be a comfort when you consider that he gave his life in the cause of Righteousness, Justice and Truth, and died bravely with his face to the Foe. He came forward early at the call of his King and Country, and bravely and gallantly did his part. Though he has laid down his earthly weapons, he wears now the Soldier's Crown of Victory, and his name will be inscribed on the Glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. We are proud of the men, who, in this Colony, have so nobly obeyed the call of Duty. When the Victory has been won, and Peace again reigns in this world, it will be a joy to you to remember that your son bore no inconsiderable part in bringing this desired end about.

With assurances of my deepest sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Mr. James Manning,
