Dear Madam:-

I am returning herewith Final Verification Form in respect of your son, Lieut. S. Manuel, deceased, as the personal inscription exceeds the number of allowed words. Will you please choose a shorter inscription and forward the Form to this Department as early as possible in order that I may have it despatched at an early date to the authorities in London.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,

Dear Walter:

I am enclosing you the Final Verification Form sent to me and filled in by Mrs. Jane Manuel, mother of Lieutenant Manuel. I am sending this one back, especially as Manuel was a friend of mine. I knew if this was put over the headstone it would make Manuel turn over in his grave. Haven't you got a life-size photograph of a visitor standing on the grave and clapping his hands?!

You will have to use your very best diplomacy in conveying to the Next-of-Kin this inscription is not suitable, even though it is a quotation from Scripture.

The excuse I am giving you is that it contains more than 66 letters.

I am doctoring most of the others myself, but as Manuel was a pal of mine I should like to have it done better.

I am enclosing another form.

Yours faithfully,

J. Rendell

I have the honour to report, that at the

He had an allotment current formerly, but cancelled same on 13th., May, 1915.

Dependence would have to be satisfactorily proven. And in view of fact that he thought fit to cancel his allotment, thereby not contributing to mother's support would militate against her claim.

The case would have to be dealt with under the clause providing for special action in special cases
