Deceased.

The above-named man was very dangerously ill when taken to the Theatre. At best it was hoped that operative interference might prolong life, but he died on the Table when barely any anaesthetic had been given, which was administered by a Specialist Officer. Syncope was no doubt due to Pericarditis.

NOVEMBER 26th 1919.

Major J.M. Howley,
Paymaster.

Sir:

With reference to the attached bill I am to advise you, by way of explanation, that this amount is due Mrs. M. Wilson on account of a loan to Mrs. C. Marks. This Department provided passage for Mrs. Marks from St. John's to Burin, but, on her arrival at the Train Station, she was informed that they could only give her a passage as far as Placentia - the Argyle not being due there until Thursday next. However, they informed her that she could connect with the Portia at Placentia on the following day. It was to provide her passage on the Portia that Mrs. Wilson advanced her the $15.00.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,

C.C. Byrne.

Dear Sir:-

We have your favour of 23rd instant in connection with trunk for Mrs. Chesley Marks, Burin. We understand that Mrs. Marks came out to Canada on the MINNEDOSA and that her trunk was afterwards sent forward by the DIGBY from Liverpool. Some time ago we requested this lady to let us have a remittance to cover cost of cartage and freight, which she refused to do. Under these circumstances you will understand that there would be very little chance of our collecting any money expended in this manner, and the trunk is therefore still on hand.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Madam:-

Your letter of recent date respecting your trunk which you state has not been forwarded to you and that you have no trace of same, has been received in due course. I have made enquiries at the Farness Withy Company, and I have been informed that your trunk lies on that premises awaiting delivery. There are certain charges for having it conveyed to your home, but I have informed the Farness Withy that this Department will stand the costs in that connection, and they have been instructed to forward your trunk to you immediately.

Yours faithfully,

Deceased.

The above-named man was very dangerously ill when taken to the Theatre. At best it was hoped that operative interference might prolong life, but he died on the Table when barely any anaesthetic had been given, which was administered by a Specialist Officer. Syncope was no doubt due to Pericarditis.

He enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regt. on 26/10/15, and presumably was not in England in August 1915. It is thought that the above Act does not apply to Newfoundland Soldiers who enlisted in that Dominion, please.
