George Martin who supposed to be the father gave up all claim of the child & paid the sum of $100.00. The mother handed the child over to Ellen Hartson who carefully raised the child until it come of age. His mother then married William Brake but now dead she leaves five sons & one daughter step brothers & one step sister of the deceased Joseph Martin. I will forward his christening later signed by the Rev. Fr. Pymon Parish Priest. Dear Madam:

Joseph Martin

In reply to your letter of Jan. 10th. regarding your ^{Brother} ~~father's~~ allotment, I beg to inform you that your brother declared an allotment to the Bank of Montreal to be deposited in his own name and father's name, therefore we are continuing this allotment in the meantime, until as such time as his case is considered whether his father or not will be entitled to a pension.

In view of the fact that he declared his allotment in favour of his father and not of you we cannot consider you a dependent.

Yours truly,
