13th October, 1916.

Dear Madam,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, intimating that you son, Private Joseph Martret, had been Killed in Action on the 1st July.

Permit me to express on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy with you at this time. While we all sorrow at the loss of loved ones, yet it will no doubt be some consolation to you to think that your boy loyally answered the Call of King and Country, fought bravely and well and fell with his face to the foe in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. He has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare and now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory. His name will be emblazoned upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. We are proud of our gallant lads and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the Call of Duty came. When the Victory has been won and Peace again reigns it will be a comfort to you to think that, in this great achievement, your gallant lad bore no small part, and gave of himself even to the uttermost.

I trust that you may have at this time the presence and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With the sincerest sympathy,
Believe me to be,
Your obedient servant,

Mrs. Mary E. Martret,

I have received your letter of the 2nd inst. asking for news of your son who is missing, and I regret to inform you that no further news has been heard of him to date.

Lists of the missing Newfoundlanders have been circulated throughout Germany in the hopes that news will be forthcoming concerning them, but so far only three prisoners have been reported and Private Martret's name is not amongst them.

The anxiety of parents and relatives at home is fully appreciated and everything possible has been done by this office on their behalf.
