W. H. Rendell Chief Staff Officer

Dear Sir

I notice by the papers that the pay & Record office in London ceases to exist according to this all business there must be settled up and I think it is about time the effects of 5741 Pte G. McCarthy should be forwarded to me

State in november my son Justin McCarthy called at the Dept of militia and made Inquiries about 5741 Pte G. McCarthys personal belongings they told him all had been destroyed but on applying to Capt Wunns the officer who conducted the draft at the time 5741 died at sea he found they had told a lie at the Dept of militia Capt Wunns gave him a list which you will find a copy of at Room No. 3 In that list at the Bottom you will notice the sum of $12 Twelve Dollars Cash which was handed in to the Record office (see over)

If you will explain why I have not received this I shall be more than obliged yours Truly

Mrs Justin McCarthy
Mother of Deceased

P.S. a letter sent about two weeks ago has not been replied to yet
