Dear Madam:-

Referring to your application for Separation Allowance I have been directed to inform you that same cannot be granted, because we cannot assume the position that you are dependent upon Pte. John McDonald, simply because your husband has not been heard from for a long period.

Yours truly,

I have known Mrs Rosina Powell for some years and at different times helped her. The husband Lewis Powell left on Bowmy's Coralia in 1907 - was paid off at Liverpool, shipped on a voyage to South America and although she has made inquiries has not heard from him or of him.

Private John McDonald is her nephew and has been her principal support - has been in the regiment two years - allowed her $18.⁶⁰ per month and after a years enlistment she received $20 per month and is looking for the increased separation allowance.

As far as I know, there was no reason why he should desert her and if he were not dead, she is confident that she would have heard from him.
