Dear Captain Howley,

I have had a visit from a certain Mrs. MacDonald of 53 Colonial Street, who states that her son No. 2922, Michael MacDonald, enlisted in July, 1916, and has been overseas since August 1916. She states that she received back time separation allowance of $280 in November 1918 and that she still receives $20 a month and has been doing so since November 1918. She suggests however that she is entitled to separation allowance as from August 1916. Would you be good enough to let me know if this is the case.

Yours sincerely,

Captain
&
Private Secretary.

Captain Howley,
Chief Paymaster,
