Dear Sir:

Attached please find copy of letter received from our District Manager of Labrador with regard to Pte. Wm. McKenzie (No 3227) who was killed in action on the 20th November last.

All particulars of the circumstances in connection with his mother's financial condition are known to the writer personally, who can affirm that this lad was absolutely the only support of his old mother.

At present she is being kept alive at this Company's expense, and we shall therefore be very grateful if you can arrange for her to receive the pension, that we understand is due her, as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY.

The Manager,

Dear Sir:

By inward mail that reached here on the 12th inst, Mrs Jane McKenzie was officially notified that her son Pte. Wm. McKenzie had been killed in action on the 20th November last.

This lad as you are well aware was the only support of his old widowed mother and at the time of enlisting made an allotment payable to her of two thirds of his salary, which usually amounted to $21.00 per month.

I do not know what provision the Government has made for cases of this nature, but am sure something is being done, may I ask you therefore to interest yourself on her behalf and secure for her whatever pension or allowance the Government is granting.

Yours truly,

(Sgd) W.E. Swaffield.

Dear Sir:-

I am forwarding herewith Final Verification Form in respect of No. 3227 Pte. William McKensie, and I would be greatly obliged if you will endeavour to have it sent to the next of kin for completion and return.

Some time ago we addressed it to Mrs. Jane McKensie, the mother of the soldier, Labrador, but it was returned with the advice that she is deceased, and we do not now know who the next of kin would be nor their address. Your help therefore would be greatly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,

Chief Staff Officer
