I beg to say that both the Military Medal and Military Cross have been forwarded by Registered Mail to the addresses as forwarded by you and I trust will be received in good order.

Mrs. Margeret Heaney,

St. Mary's.

Dear Mrs. Heaney:-

We are forwarding you under separate cover the Military Medal and Bar won by your son, No. 1709 Private T.J. Heaney.

It was correct, as you stated, that Lieut. L.O. Murphy brought home the Military Medal with him, and intended delivering it to you personally as you son requested, but he has been unable to leave town up to the present, and was holding the Medal with the intention of presenting it to you on the first opportunity. However, he has passed it over to us at our request, and we have much pleasure in forwarding it to you.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:-

The following extract from Honours and Awards is quoted in connection with the deed for which No.1709, Private Thomas Meaney won the Military Medal.

"During the advance he never tired in running messages. He always succeeded in carrying out his work. It mattered not whether he had to pass through the enemy barrage or not, he never hesitated. He is undoubtedly the finest runner in the Regiment. " 9/10/17

I wish to congratulate you on the conduct of your son which reflects credit, not only on himself, but on his Regiment.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Col

Sir:-

I beg to forward you enclosed letter from the Colonial Secretary covering letter from Margaret Meaney, both having reference to a medal won by #1709 Pte. T.J. Meaney. As you will notice this soldier says that the medal was being brought to Newfoundland by Mr. Murphy.

Will you be good enough to let us know if you have the said medal, or if you know anything about it.

ANSWERED

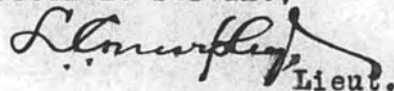

St. John's, Nfld.,
May 6th, 1918.

Sir,

Replying to your letter of even date, I beg to say that the Medal referred to was given to me by Private Meaney, who was in my Company in France. He asked me to see that his Mother received it, personally, and because I proposed to going to Placentia for a week - had it not been for the recruiting campaign - I retained it in order to carry out his request.

Because a visit there now is not feasible, I am sending you the Medal under separate cover, as well as a small package, forwarded to me, and addressed to Lieut. Hicks' Mother, which, I understand, contains the Military Cross won by that Officer.

Your obedient servant,

Lieut.

I have had no particulars regarding the matter, beyond what I have sent you, but immediately upon receipt of further details I shall at once send them to you. From the information received, I should think he is not at all badly wounded.

Yours truly,

Colonial Secretary.

Dear sir,

I received your message sometime ago, telling me of my son being wounded;

I waited for further news of him, ever since
and receiving none
I decided to write
I thought he may write me, or I may hear from him
in some way;

I would very much like to know if his hand was very badly wounded;
and if he is getting better,

will you please let me know this as soon as you can,

And oblige very much his anxious mother
