The Matron of Brooklands Military Hospital, Weybridge, Surrey, states that this soldier is seriously ill suffering from general debility and heart weakness, following Rheumatic Fever; and as he might take a dangerous turn at any time she suggests that it might be advisable to have his cousin, No. 933 Pte.W.P.Miles, to come and see him.

Pte. W.P. Miles has been given a Railway Warrant to Weybridge to see his ^{Cousin} brother.

Dear Sirs.

Some time in the early summer I wrote
you with ^{reference to} regard to my late son (Pte H. J. Miles #934) who died at Wandsworth on March 18 this year
The portion of his pay I speak of is that which had accumulated during his illness which I think covered a space of about 8 or 9 months. So far we have not received any of it and there was as he saw us to understand

quite a good bit there your reply to my first re this matter was that it takes a long time to get a man's account
fixed up after his death.
Well a long time has certainly elapsed since his death long enough I think for us to receive his pay
I might add that we have neither received his pay nor any of his effects
Yours Faithfully
Douglas Miles
would thank you for a reply

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of September 27th. I beg to state that I hope to be able to get the affairs of your late Son arranged to your satisfaction in a very short time. Only a day or two ago, I received final accounts from the Pay & Record Office at London, together with lists of Effects which have been shipped, and which have not yet reached here. I am obtaining information with regard to the disposal of Effects of deceased Soldiers, and shall be able to write you something definite regarding same in a very short time.

Yours very truly,

J.M.H/B.M.W.

Dear Sir:-

I am writing to inform you that it is my regrettable duty to forward you a small parcel of effects, belonging to your late son, Pte. H. J. Miles, who died of Tubercular Meningitis on the 18th March 1916. The parcel is being forwarded by registered mail to-day, and is supposed to contain the items listed on the enclosed form.

I have not opened any of these parcels to see if the contents are correct, so I would ask you to kindly check off the items against the enclosed, and if found correct, please sign receipt appended to the list and return same to me at your earliest convenience.

Assuring you my deepest sympathy in your bereavement, and in the added sorrow which the receipt of these effects must entail.

Sincerely yours,

2nd. Lieut. & D/Paymaster.

Dear Sir,-

Referring to your letter of May 18th., I beg to state that I have not yet received particulars from the Paymaster at London, regarding your son's pay. I was informed by him some time ago that it took something like four months to get a man's account finally arranged after his death, I expect it will be some little time before matters in your son's case will be finalized.

As soon as I hear from the Paymaster at London, I will advise you further.

Yours very truly,

Government House,
St. John's, Nfld.
8 April, 1916.

Dear Mr. Morris,

I have just received your letters of March 16th and 21st.

Your eloquent description of the funeral of that gallant young soldier, Heber Miles, has touched my heart. There is nothing so impressive as a military funeral when you lay in the earth the remains of a hero just emerging into the full promise of manhood. We thought very highly of the lad: he was the hope of Mr. Augustus Bayly the Clergyman at Bonavista, a Christian Priest who commands the respect and admiration of every Newfoundlander.

I am sending Mr. Dougald Miles the story of the funeral and I shall read it at the next meeting of the Patriotic Association.

I do not wish to let this opportunity pass from expressing again and again to the Contingent Association how highly their devotion is prized throughout the Colony. It is not merely that every Mother is thankful for the kindness shown to her lad, but we all feel collectively the constant devotion to the care of these lads of ours stricken in the hard campaign of the Dardanelles or The King's Service.

To all of those working members of the Association who have given of their sympathy their time and their money to the well-being of the golden flower of our youth, I tender on behalf of us all our heartfelt thanks.

E.B. Morris Esq.
Nfld War Contingent Assen.

Dear Mr. Miles,

We do so deeply sympathise with you all in the death of your gallant son Heber. I had watched him all along because he was one of Mr. Bayly's rising young men; and I knew that those who were Mr. Bayly's favourites must be the very best type. But I have heard his praises from other sources and several of my friends in England have written in so loving terms of his gentleness and patience in illness.

I send you now (1) the official communication from Capt. Timewell (No. 1072/49 of the 23rd ultimo) and the Official Proof of death, and (2) an account from Mr. E. R. Morris of the stately and impressive funeral of a gallant soldier, than which there is nothing more touching.

Believe me to be, dear Mr. Miles,

With sincere regards of Lady Davidson and myself

Yours very truly,

Sir/

I feel sure that you, others in Newfoundland will be interested in getting an account of the sad & impressive ceremony, at which several of us, so closely interested in the brave men of our Oldest Colony, were present on Tuesday the 21st inst when we laid H. J. Miles to rest in the plot of ground at bands worth, that has been purchased by the Newfoundland War Contingent Association. The Contingent was represented by Lady Morris, Sir Edgar Downing, Mr. Jew, myself & Sergt Bennett. About 20, of the men from Brookland Convalescent Home were brought to the Hospital in Mrs Locke-King's motor. The Cortage was then formed & consisted of 16 men of the London & Scottish Regt, who led with arms reversed, followed by their mounted Officers, then the Coffin covered with the Union Jack, on which was laid

(laid) 4 beautiful wreaths from the Newfoundland
War Centenary Assn, Sir Edgar Browning, Comrades
from the Hospital Convalescent Home, Mrs Locke-King
& a tribute of Lillies from Lady Morris & myself.
After the Coffin followed Sir Edgar Browning's Car with the nurses as aforesaid, then the three Cars ~~with the nurses~~ with the men from the Convalescent Home, (where young Mills died) Mrs Locke-King &
two of the nurses, followed by a number of men from the Wandswoth Hospital, Lastly the Carriage with the Military Chaplain.

The first part of the service was read in the little Chapel of the Cemetery thence the Coffin was borne to the Grave by 8 men from the London Scottish.

The words of Committal being said & the Coffin lowered into the grave, the last post sounded &
3 volleys fired by the firing party of the London
Scottish arms presented.

Needless to say there were few dry eyes at the farewell to young Mills, for most of us had got to know him well in Hospital
he had endeared himself to his nurses & his visiting friends by his uncomplaining cheerfulness.

March 22, 1916.

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a telegram from the Record Office, London, containing the sad news that No. 934, Private Heber John Miles, had died at Brooklands Military Hospital, Weybridge, on the 18th March. The message that I sent you on the 15th March notified that your son was dangerously ill of tubercular meningitis and I presume that it was of this disease that he died.

Permit me to express on behalf of the Government and myself my sincere sympathy with you in this time of trouble. While we feel the loss and our hearts are sore, it is some comfort to know that he died doing what he could for his King and Country. We are glad to have such noble young men who so quickly responded to the call of duty and we are equally proud of the fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the Empire needed them. Though your son has laid down his earthly weapons, he wears instead the Soldier's Crown of Victory and his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his countrymen. When Peace comes again to the earth and the reign of Right and Truth is assured, you will remember that in that Victory your brave boy bore his part and did his best.

I trust that you and yours may have the consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With sincerest sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Mr. Dugald Miles,

Dear Sir.

Mr. Dugald Miles is anxious to know if there is any possibility of his son Mr H. J. Miles now at Wandsworth with Tubercular Meningitis, being well enough to be brought home. He will deem it a great favour if you can ascertain this for him with as little delay as possible. In case I should be away it will perhaps be best to communicate with him direct.
