Dear Madam,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, the news that your son, Private William Miller, had died of wounds on the 17th October.

I beg to express to you, on behalf of the Government and for myself, the deepest sympathy in your time of sorrow. Whatever the circumstances, our hearts ache at the parting with our loved ones, but it no doubt some comfort to think that he gave his life in the service of his King and Country and for the perpetuation of the most vital principles, namely, Righteousness, Trust and Liberty. He early came forward, and loyally, at the call of King and Country, enlisted to do his utmost for the sake of the Empire. Though he has fallen, yet it will be a joy to you to remember, in the hour of Victory, that such was achieved by his help, and that though he has lain his armour down, he now wears the soldier's crown of victory. His name will be inscribed upon the Roll of Honour and held in fragrant memory by his fellow countrymen. We are proud to have such gallant boys, and we are also glad that we have such noble and unselfish parents who so willingly give their lads up when the call of duty comes.

Assuring you of my sincerest sympathy at this time, believe me to be

Your most obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Mrs. Francis Miller,
Apsey Point,
