Dear Sir:

I am enclosing the "Inventory of Effects" I found all correct. - Sir I want to ask you a few questions concerning my dear Son Plt Jas H. Mooney No 920 who was killed in action July 1st 1916. I have reason to know that he had quite a sum of money in the Pay Record Office London. He may have drawn it, but from remarks he made to me before he was killed

I am led to believe he didn't draw it; He was saving for Jurlough but it was his death he received first poor dear child, I was going to write to the Pay Record London but I decided to write to you first or the Colonial Secretary might know something about it. If there is any money due him it is but right that I should get it. Hoping soon to hear from

Yours Sincerely

FOUNDLAND POSTAL TELEGRAPHS.Cable Connection with all the World*All Messages Sent are Subject to the Following Conditions:

The Management may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the N. P. T. or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the N. P. T., they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The N. P. T. shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the N. P. T. over the Message shall be deemed to have entirely ceased for the purposes of these Conditions at any point where, in the course of the transit of the Message to its destination, it may be entrusted by the N. P. T. (and the N. P. T. shall have full power so to entrust the Message) for further transmission by or through any system, service, or line of Telegraph belonging to or worked by any administration or authority not controlled by the N. P. T. exclusively, although worked as part of or in connection with the Telegraphic system or service of the N. P. T.

I request that the following Telegram may be forwarded according to the foregoing Conditions, by which I agree to abide.
