London Gazette, March 13th 1918

Action Date, November 20th 1917 – Cambrai

For great courage and determination . His Lewis gun was in action on a road against a hostile machine gun firing down the road and only about 150 yards away. When the two men working our gun were knocked out, he immediately rushed forward and re-opened fire with the gun, thereby masking the hostile gun and enabling our advance to continue.
