March 13, 1916.

Dear Sir,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a telegram intimating that your brother No. 1354, Private Robert Morris, had been killed in action on the 7th January. Permit me to express to you, on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in your sorrow. One cannot too deeply mourn the loss of such a brave soldier, but there is consolation in knowing that he did his duty honestly and well and gave his life for the cause of Liberty and the upholding of the Empire. Though he has now laid down his earthly weapons, he has assumed the crown of victory as a soldier who died in the defence of his country.

We are proud to have such brave young men, and we rejoice also that we have such noble fathers and mothers who so willingly give up their sons when the call of King and Country comes to them. When the fight has been won and the reign of Peace and Truth and Righteousness has again been established upon earth, it will be no small comfort to you to realize that your brave brother did all he could in order to bring this about. His name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his countrymen.

I trust that the comfort of the Great Father of us all may be given to you at this time. With my warmest and fullest sympathy, believe me to be

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. David Morris,
Rames.

To the London Pay Office

Dear Sirs I have received a letter Robert
today stating that Private Morris was amongst the casualty list. I wrote him last August and only today my letter has been returned. I am very sorry for him indeed as I was to be his bride when he would return, he has no friends but me so I want to know full particulars of his death and also who he left his money to as he told me I would get it if any accidence should happen him. He told me he would make his will before he would leave for the front and I suppose hw he did so Would you oblige me by letting me know full particulars Awaiting your reply
