Sir,

No. 427, Pte. M.W. Morrissey.

With reference to letter 24/11/16 from the D.M.S. referring to absence of documents relating to this man, I have the honour to state that all information available here has been transmitted in form of documents which have been forwarded from time to time as per attached schedule; see also my letter 3777/141, 11/9/16, to Your Excellency.

The D.M.S. also refers to the absence of entries under Service table IV on A.F. B.178a. I am afraid that this is not the only instance and King's Regs. Para. 1917 does not appear to be observed as it should.

Further the D.M.S. asks for Proceedings of Medical Board, but the man having been pronounced fit for Home Service such would not have been held.

Officer i/c. Records,
London, S.W.

Pte. M.W. Morrissey No. 427.

This man has come before a Medical Board here, with nothing whatever in the way of Records, except a M.H.S. Even this contains no entry on IV Service Table. It shows one entry by 3rd London Gen. Hospital, which says he was sent to Brooklands.

Will you please forward proceedings of Medical Board held on this man, if any.
