Dear Anderson;

No doubt you will be surprised to hear from me, when you learn that I am looking for a favor you'll say that you would never hear from me but for wanting something done. I want you to send me a Copy of Pay Warrant, I judge you have an extra one about, you can send it out by Capt. Pippy.

I trust that your health is much improved and that you are not working too hard. Kind regards to Major Timewell and best wishes for yourself.

I am,

Sincerely Yours.

Dear Mr. Grieve,

There may be difficulty in confirming Capt. O'Grady in the Forestry Companies, arising over the question of pay. He has dependents whose support rests on him alone and foreign service represents a loss of income. The matter will be determined later and meanwhile he gives you his assistance.

I return the schedule of enlistments. I am now in the despondent stage fearing that the Northern men will fail us.

Yours sincerely,

W.B. Grieve Esq.

Dear Captain O'Grady,

I have read- and enjoyed reading- your paper setting out the duties for Warrant Officers, N.C.O's and Private Soldiers. I now return it.

It is an admirable compilation and would be very useful when put in Book Form.

I take this opportunity for complimenting yourself for your share in so successfully turning out our recent drafts for active service. Capt. Abraham agrees with me that the Barracks are admirably appointed and that the men have improved out of all knowledge since they have had the advantage of being together under one roof in these commodious Barracks.

Yours sincerely

Capt. J. J. O'Grady,
First Newfoundland Regiment.

Dear Mr. Howley,

I am enclosing letter from Mrs. O'Leary. I am not quite sure but I rather think O'Leary wrote a note asking that his wife be sent a cheque every fortnight; I asked him to do so but do not remember whether he did or not, in any case he asked me to see that it was done. If you do not think it advisable to pay the whole amount you might pay Mrs. O'Leary $2.60 per day instead of $3.10

"That Lieut. O'Grady be allowed expenses during his absence at the same rate as that allowed to other officers who have gone with the other Contingents, that is, that he be given transportation to and from the Old Country, that he be given his regimental pay and an allowance of £10 a day while in the United Kingdom."

15 December 1915.

Extract from Letter from His, Excellency, The Governor, St. John's Newfoundland, dated Nov. 30th 1915.

" Lieut. O'Grady has been doing extremely good work as an Instructor here and is a most reliable man. It is thought that a course as outlined in my message would be of immense benefit to him and to the men of the Regiment passing through his hands here before leaving for Ayr.

I shall therefore be pleased if you can arrange things accordingly.

It will be necessary for you to arrange matters with the Pay Department so that Lieut. O'Grady may receive the pay of his rank and all allowances necessary to cover any expenses which may properly incurred during the period of his course. This I would thank you to look after also. "
