My dear Anderson

I don't like to be troublesome and I know that your short handed office must be very busy at this time, but I would be much obliged if you could send me an instalment of that list of prisoners which I asked for. I wish to write to all of them, and if you can send some of their addresses I can make a beginning and finish when you have time -

Dr Fisher is busy to get an answer from Germany. I telegraphed to Mr Lloyd to enquire whether Bonar had mentioned any particulars about Romans, but his letter to his mother did not refer to him.

I can hardly think that he imagined that he could get Romans round.

Yours sincerely

Mary Talbot

I wish you and Mrs Anderson a very happy New Year.

Dear Sir Joseph.

I have been away on a short holiday, and on my return received your letter of the 4th instant.

I find the list of prisoners was sent you, and it must have crossed your letter.

The following prisoners have been transferred to Switzerland:

2nd Lieut. A. B. Baird, Hotel du Lac Und Ostbahnhof, Interlaken.

Addresses unknown:

2242	Cpl.	Goudie, G.	2323	Pte.	Martin, E.J.

2252	"	Hogan, B.	2621	"	Taylor, E.
2376	"	Hayes, P.

The following are now in England:

827	Sgt.	Loveys, A.W.	2742	Pte.	Vaughan, H.A.
2332	Pte.	Diamond, F.W.	2150	"	Butler, E.

Any letters addressed to the four last named in care of this Office will be forwarded.

Yours sincerely,

4 Bayntons Grove Cranwood Brip

My dear Audrey

Many thanks for the address which I have received. Should any more addresses be received will you be so kind as to have them sent to me. I have heard of case recently where a man turned up who had been missing over a year. I can't help hoping that we may have a chance of hearing that Norman may be still alive altho I recognise that the chances are very slim.

Yours sincerely

While you were at Winchester Mrs. Norman asked Anderson to apply for a passage as soon as possible for her. She received a telegram last night that her father has died so she will not wish for a passage in the near future - I hope it will not give you much trouble to cancel the application -

Dear Sir Joseph,

With reference to your letter 17/4/18: it is with much regret that I hear of the cause for the cancellation of the passage for Mrs. Norman Outerbridge, and I hope that you will convey my sincere sympathy to her.

I have this morning heard from the Commissioner of Emigration for Canada acknowledging cancellation of passage.

Yours sincerely,

My Dear Maxwell,

Sir Joseph Outerbridge has informed me to-day that he would like to go to Newfoundland by the most direct route, about the first of June. I know that he had tentatively arranged to go before but had to put it off, so I am sure you will do your best for him. It is possible that Miss Jessie Job of Newfoundland may travel at the same time. Whilst it may be comparatively simple to arrange transport for Sir Joseph, it may be more difficult in the case of a lady, but I will leave the whole matter in your good hands, and hope to hear from you soon so that I may advise Sir Joseph.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir Joseph,

The enclosed post-card from No. 2776, Pte. J. Joy and slip attached have been received from the War Office this morning. Under the circumstances I feel sure that you will not regard as a liberty the fact of my having read the communication.

Will you permit me on behalf of myself and the staff of this office to attempt to convey to you and Lady Outerbridge the keen sympathy that is felt with you in the irreparable loss that you, and indeed the whole Regiment, have sustained in the supreme tribute by one who I know was regarded as an especially promising Officer, besides possessing a personality such as is seldom met with.

Although it is feared that Joy's statement must be accepted as final, before officially reporting it to Newfoundland, your desires in the matter are awaited; and similarly no action has been taken as to notifying Mrs. Norman Outerbridge. Perhaps under the circumstances of the communication being to you, you may think it desirable to undertake the painful duty yourself.

Yours very sincerely,

Copy sent to Sir J. Outerbridge

Dear Sir Joseph,

I am enclosing copies of letter received from No.1111, Pte. P.J. Hogan. A copy is also being sent to the Comite Internationale de la Croix Rouge, Geneva, Switzerland, with request to ascertain what further information may be obtainable.

It is the custom to forward copies of such special and specific letters to H.Q., St. John's, Newfoundland, as with other reports relating to Casualties, and it is hoped that in this instance such a course is agreeable to you, as also in the case of copies of letters, etc., which you have been good enough to furnish this Office with from time to time.

Needless to add, I cannot express how sincerely I hope that Hogan's report may lead to the realisation of that which must be dominant in your mind, although the indications hitherto have been so painfully to the contrary.

Yours sincerely,

I enclose the copy of a letter from Pte. P.J. Outerbridge has not been reported on any of the official German lists and has not been heard from since. He was presumed dead 14/10/17, but in the face of Pte. Hogan's letter there still seems to be a hope that he may be a prisoner in German hands. Would your Agency be so good as to make every possible enquiry from the German authorities, with a view to ascertain if Lieut. Outer-bridge is alive or not?

Dear Lieut Tennent

Many thanks for your note and the enclosed list of the 77 prisoners. As I told you I telegraphed the Red Cross International, Geneva, asking if they could arrange for some one to interview these men and enquire if any of them knew whether Norman was killed. The Red Cross replies- "We do not think that all the prisoners reported in the German lists as being at Limburg are there. We believe on the contrary that most of them are detained in hospitals near the front their correspondence

"passing through Limburg. This fact
"may account for their being reported
"at Limburg." In this case I suppose that letters addressed to the men at Limburg are not likely to reach some of them. and Lewis at Sandes?

Sir Joseph Outerbridge,
The Beacon Hotel,
Crowborough, Sussex.

Dear Sir Joseph:

I have received your letter, addressed to Major Timewell, in his absence.

The 77 Prisoners were registered at Limburg, which does not necessarily mean that they remained or even were there. As a matter of fact some of them have since been drafted to other internment camps, and they all appear to be moving about Germany. It is most difficult to keep track of Prisoners, and to feel certain that the parcels reach them. It is recommended that no parcels be sent to Limburg, pending a more definite address.

You will be interested to hear that the question of delay in hearing from and of Newfoundland Prisoners of War is being brought up in the House of Commons at an early date, and we hope it will have an effect for the good, not only to our own Contingent, but to others as well.

With kind regards to Lady Outerbridge and yourself.

Yours sincerely,

Sir Joseph Outerbridge. The Beacon Hotel
Crowborough Sussex

Dear Sir Joseph:

I have two of your letters to answer—— those dated the 7th and 10th instant. We are rather short-handed here at present, and the Major has gone away for a few days' leave, so please pardon delay!

Only 5 of the 77 Prisoners registered at Limburg have been traced to Camps, and I enclose a list of them, showing the Companies.

Most of the men named on the enclosed newspaper cutting were killed in July (last month) and reported in the usual way by the O.C. Unit.

What I expect you more particularly want to know is: Who reported the two men killed in action, who were previously posted as Missing on the 14/4/17; i.e. Tarrant and Reid. This report was made by Rev. V. Bromage, C.F., 13th Rifle Brigade, B.E.F., who apparently buried the bodies, which must have been recovered.

Of course all the communiques in the Press with regard to Newfoundland Casualties are put in by this Office through the War Office

Yours Sincerely

~~Your obedient servant~~

2nd Lieut.

My dear Anderson

The enclosed from today's "Times". Can you tell me how the news came of the two men Goss and Nanny being killed?

Sir Joseph Outerbridge,
Crowborough, Sussex.

Dear Sir Joseph:

The Officer Commanding, 1/1st Newfoundland Regt., B.E.F., reported 1907 Gosse, and 356 Hussey, killed in action. The men both fell on the 14/4/17, and the O.C. made the reports on 13/6/17 and 16/6/17 respectively. It is probable that eye-witnesses in the Regiment gave evidence that they were killed, ~~because~~ certain men in hospital told me also that they actually saw Gosse and Hussey killed.

And

Yours sincerely,

2nd Lieut.

Dear Anderson

I have the following tel[gram] from Lt Lewis. "Communicate 821 Lieut James Taylor re information about Prisoner prevented communicating in letter written Miss Bowden"

Can you tell me which company Lieut Taylor belongs to, and his address. I don't find his name among the Prisoners list which I have. I only received this morning through the General Post Office a letter from Lieut Chesterton who knew
