

Paddick, Levi, Regt. No. 2558

Military Medal

London Gazette, January 14th 1918

Action Date, October 9th 1917 – Broembeek

He performed his duty delivering messages under most trying conditions. He went out continuously under very heavy shell fire and sniping to and from Battalion H.Q. and the front line, and this was a most difficult task after dark. He proved to be a fearless and reliable runner.
