Dear Sir:

The above named man called to see me a day or two ago, and informed that he only received two months' war service gratuity. It was very hard for me to accept this statement, but if there is anything coming to him, it would be most desirable that he receive it now, as he and his family are in very straitened circumstances at present.

He joined up sometime in the winter of 1915-16, and returned from overseas about July 31st, 1919. His second month's gratuity was sent to him sometime around November, 1919, and shortly after that date he moved away from Newfoundland, and has been in various parts of Canada and the United States. He returned to Newfoundland a couple of years ago and has worked in the vicinity of Corner Brook and Deer Lake ever since.

He states that he wrote the Militia Department on several occasions regarding the War Service Gratuity but did not get any answer. He further states that owing to the many changes in his address it is quite possible that any letters sent him might go astray.

Will you be good enough to examine records, and if his statement is correct please arrange that he gets any monies that are due him.

A letter addressed to him at above address will find him.

Dear Bert:-

I have your letter of 2nd. inst., re Ambrose Perks, and am replying direct to him.

I am also taking the opportunity of letting you know how we stand in the matter, and what wild statements some of these men can make.

On July 29th.1919 Perks was paid $70.00, first payment of W.S.G., on Aug. 29th.1919, he was paid a further $70.00, second payment, and on September 23rd.1919 he applied to have the balance paid to him in a lump sum. His application having been granted, a cheque for $280.00 was paid to him on that date.

Statements such as Mr. Perks makes are such as put the authorities in wrong, for when they are made to sympathetic listeners, the latter in the majority of cases believe them to the detriment of the Department and officials concerned.

With kind personal regards.

Yours truly,

Archivist.

Dear Sir:-

Major Butler has written me, regarding a statement that you have made to him concerning War Service Gratuity, in which you claim that you have only received two monthly payments. Your memory must surely be failing you in this regard.

On July 29th.1919 a cheque for $70.00 was issued to you for the first payment. On August 29th. another cheque for $70.00 was issued to you for the second payment. And on September 25rd.1919, you applied to have the balance of your war service gratuity paid to you, and the application was granted, and a cheque for $280.00, representing four months payments, was paid to you on that date.

Yours truly,

Archivist.
