Dear Sir

In Referring to My application for separation allowance as there is a slight error as regards me Leaving separation allowance to my Sister instead of my father well the Reason for that was because my father was an old man not able to get around I thought it best to leave the money to my sister as she was the only Daughter and she was caring for him and supporting with the money I was Leaving her from May 1915 till May 1919
So hoping this will be of satisfactory use

I remain

Sincerely yours

Mr. D.H. Perry,
Humbermouth.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of Feb. 13th., to G.W.V.A., I beg to advise that I have no knowledge of any bonus money being paid to members of the Regiment.

We are at present engaged in distributing naval prize money to certain members of the Royal Naval Reserve, but this has nothing whatever to do with members of the Regiment.

Yours truly,

Major
Paymaster
