Dear Mr. Berbeau,-

With further reference to your letter 20/12/15, as you will doubtless have already heard No. 691 Pte. Walter Pippy is out of hospital on furlough.

Since I wrote you 18/2/16 I have been moving to get postal arrangements in better order, and have written H.E. the Governor from time to time on the subject. Last week another batch of belated letters &c. returned from the Mediterranean was received here, but I hope that recurrences of this peculiarity will soon cease. As you can imagine these concentrated influxes of letters make it difficult to cope with them, and I have still a number of a semi-official character to dispose of.

With regard to previous copies of Cash Book which appear to have been lost in transit, copies are being made and will be forwarded with as little delay as possible.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

H.T./N.M.
