Dear Sir:-

Your communication of March 28th to Dr. W. W. Blackall has been passed to this Department.

In reply I would state that as you were discharged from the service as an Al you were not entitled to any pension. If, however, you wish to have your case re-considered, it will be necessary for you to secure a Doctor's certificate setting forth the nature and extent of your disability and forward to this office. On receipt of your case shall be placed before the Board for consideration.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Herewith is a letter which I have received from Anuel Pond. Perhaps you can find out whether he ought to be getting some assistance from the Pensions Board. He says that his left shoulder was badly wounded and that he finds it hard to work..

Yours faithfully,
