The Pauper's
Separation Allowance Bill Affairs.

July 14th/19

Sir,

Enclosed are Separation Allowance Papers filled and signed by Public Works but not a clergyman. The latter seems almost an impossibility in a city like New York.

I go to Church but am only one of a crowd like the few friends

I have here.

From what the Mayor said
it is not usual nor necessary here to have a clergyman like anything of this kind.

I am known to Mr. Loder Rector of Grand Falls C. of E. also to Mr. Deane who was Methodist Minister there some three years ago.

I am afraid that is the best
I can do in that respect.

Yours Respectfully
Jane Angus Polk

Sir:-

Yours of the 18 inst to hand and contents noted.

With reference to separation allowance am I not entitled to this for the time I am receiving War Gratuity as well as for the time I was on Active Service? There has not been any paid except for the time I was on active Service.

Re War Gratuity:

I wish to draw your attention again to the fact that altho' I am entitled to the War Gratuity for over two years service I have only rec'd four payments, the fourth of which is stamped "Final Payment"

Trusting you will give these matters your consideration.

I am
Yours truly B. W. Potts.

Cheque probably burnt.
Ask him to supply indemnities in case of presentation.

Sir:-

The cheque you forwarded my Mother for Separation allowance claims apparently only covers the time I was on Active Service and leaves out the time that I have been receiving war gratuity.

I understand from others that they continued to receive separation ^{allowance} ~~at~~ as long as they rec'd war gratuity, so don't see why I should not as well.

Hoping you will adjust
this matter, I am, Sir,

Yours Sincerely
B. W. Potts.

Seperation Allowances
Dept. of militia
St. Johns.

7/10

3060

Sir:-

When on service Overseas I twice made application for Seperation allowance for my Mother, filling out what I understood were the necessary forms in the Orderly Room.

As my Mother did not receive the allowance I brought the matter to your notice in St Johns in the early part of July of this year. You gave me another form to be filled out by her, this I forwarded to her. She filled it out & sent it back to your office.

On Aug 31st she had not heard from you re this matter.

Considering that I only was able to enlist after considerable trouble on account of a slight medical

Defect I think I am receiving very unfair treatment in this matter. Also it took an amount out of my savings, which I intended for other purposes, equal to the amount of Seperation allowance due for my two years service.

Trusting that you will attend to this matter at your earliest convenience, I am

yours truly.
