INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.

This section should be completed in the Hospital at which a man is attending at the time of his examination by a Medical Board, or, if the man is not in Hospital, by the Medical Officer of the Unit or Command Depot. The Soldier should be given a full opportunity of examining it, as, if awarded a pension, his subsequent identification depends on his confirming this declaration. I received cheques to the amount of $55.12 fifty five, seventeen for my last gratuity payment, I require a statement of balance namely $148.34 fourteen eighty three which you have deducted.

I was under the impression the gratuity was given by the people of the country & had nothing to do with the Regiment.

Kindly let me know for what reason this amount has been kept back as I intend to recover same.

Dear Madam:-

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 22nd inst. in which you enquire as to the possibility of the remaining Gallipoli veterans being returned home on furlough.

In this connection, I am to state that no decision has yet been arrived at by the War Office, and it will not likely be for some weeks yet. In view of the information in possession of this Office, I would advise you to forward your Christmas parcels as usual. The matter of furlough for the remaining veterans of the Gallipoli campaign has been put before the War Office, and until we receive definite information from them, we will be unable to give any idea as to when furlough may be granted.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Col.,

Dear Sir,

I am exceedingly anxious to know if there is any hope whatever of the remaining Gallipoli veterans return home on furlough?

The time of the year has rolled round for Christmas parcels to be sent to "the boys", and really we are most anxious to learn whether they will be in France at Christmas, or here on home furlough.

We are truly puzzled Sir to know why furlough was granted the first 5,00 and not the second, or those who passed through the Gallipoli campaign?

Yours respectfully

Dear Mrs. Richards,

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 18th inst. with reference to the matter of obtaining furlough for your son, #952 Pts. Harry V. Richards. I may state that the reason why furlough has not been granted to your son, up to the present is that he was not one of the "First Five Hundred," and it was only for the survivors of the "First Five Hundred" that leave was arranged at first, but upon the return to the other side, of those men who are now on leave, the question of granting furlough to all men who have seen service in Gallipoli and France will be taken up.

As requested, I am returning you the letter dated May 18th.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir

You will find enclosed a letter received on May 20th/18 and which plainly states my request.

We have been looking forward to the home-coming of our dear boy who has been away from home almost four years and we are puzzled to know "why" furlough cannot be granted him?

He is one of the Gallipoli veterans, (and we were given to understand that those would be the first to get furlough home) - has been twice wounded; back again to the firing line, until regt was withdrawn.

Will you kindly inform us, if the whole of those who passed through the Gallipoli campaign are getting furlough?

Yours respectfully

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 16th inst. directed to the Minister of Militia, in which you make application for home furlough for your son 4982 Pte. Harry V. Richards. Unfortunately, your letter arrived too late to reach the Minister, as he left St. John's on Thursday for England, but I may say that we are to-day forwarding an application to this boy's Commanding Officer, requesting a furlough to be given him.

ANSWERED
Dear Sir.

As you are shortly leaving for the Old Country and will doubtless come in contact with a goodly number of the Boys during your stay.

May I earnestly and respectfully solicit a favour on behalf of my son No 902 Pte Harry D. Richards, who has been away from home going on his fourth year, and who has never had the chance of seeing home & loved ones during that time. He is one of the many dear Boys who passed through the Gallipoli, has been twice wounded, and went back to the firing line for the third time during the last "big drive".

Mr Richards, his father is an Englishman, and we are the parents of two sons, both of whom we have given to serve their King and Empire, still we think it hard Sir, that the eldest one especially who has been away so long, has never had the privilege of a furlough home.

I am fully aware Sir that your duties are many & pressing, but we would deem it a God-send, just to look once more upon the face of our dear and eldest son, and if you Sir will only take note of the above, we as fond and loving parents will feel greatly obliged to you

Wishing you Sir a very pleasant journey across.

Respectfully yours
(Mrs) C. Y. Richards

Mrs. G. E. Richards,
Lakewood, Glenwood.

Dear Mrs. Richards,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 16th inst. directed to the Minister of Militia, in which you make application for home furlough for your son #982 Pte. Harry V. Richards. Unfortunately, your letter arrived too late to reach the Minister, as he left St. John's on Thursday for England, but I may say that we are to-day forwarding an application to this boy's Commanding Officer, requesting a furlough to be given him.

Your faithfully,

C.C.B.
Captain,
For Chief Staff Officer.
