1215 Pte. H. Saunders, who returned with his wife on the "Corsican" on the 1st, states that he has lost a trunk which was on the boat. We have no record or trace of its arriving either here or at the Rink. The description of it is 1 Lin Trunk addressed Saunders, Southside, St John's, Newfoundland, and marked "for hold".

It seems probable that this was accidentally left on the ship and I was wondering if a telegram could be sent to the ship on arrival, as Private Saunders states that the trunk contains much that is very valuable to his wife and himself.
