Dear Sir:

I now answer the letter which I receive from you today. You told me to send my marriage certificate, I am sending it now. I was married before the War and my first wife is dead, and I am married the second time. I have been married two years this time after I served in the Army.. I was married the second time. I have one child it is five years old the Tenth of July past, it is my first wife's child.

Tell me how many cheques are coming to me. I have received three now. I think there was more coming to me.

Answer and tell me . They are all getting six month's pay up here. I am looking for my money all the time and have'nt got it yet. I am up here and can't get no work, and I am standing in a poor state at present time. I have my family up here and can't get out of it, for I got no money to get out of it.

Samuel Sealey,
Glace Bay,
New Aberdeen.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter of July 17th. stating that you have a wife and one child, I beg to advise you that your form of claim for War Service Gratuity, filled out by you, states that you have no dependents, therefore I cannot understand why you completed the form in that manner, if you state you have a wife and child.

I enclose herewith form of claim for Separation Allowance, which kindly have your wife complete and return to this Department, also please forward your Marriage Certificate, and when the necessary particulars are noted, it will be returned to you.

Yours truly,

Capt.
