Lieut. Col. Rendell, C.B.E., Militia Department.

Moreton's Hr.,
Dec 8th, 1920

To His Excellency the Governor

Dear Sir:-

I am writing you concerning a heavy loss I met with a few days ago. I am a returned soldier served four years in the war in Newfoundland Regiment was wounded three times and I find a lot of my last wound which was in the right leg

So to get a living I bought a small farm and a horse which I had to pay for horse alone two hundred dollars, and a few days ago he took sick and died in three hours. I had it only eight months Now Sir I want to ask you if you will be kind enough to help me with a few dollars to purchase another one, as I cant see how I am to get through the winter without a horse as I live more than a mile from anyone and have no money to purchase another one.

Trusting that you will be kind enough to give me a helping hand,

I remain,

Yours truly

3rd January, 1921.

Dear Colonel,

I am sorry to trouble you ^{again} about the case of Corporal Small of Moreton's Harbour but I should like to know if your Department can assist in a case of this kind.

It cannot be considered a case for Pauper Relief therefore Mr. O'Dwyer could not assist. Would you let me know as soon as possible as the matter has been outstanding for some little time. ~~now~~

Yours sincerely,

Captain J. Hamilton,
Private Secretary
Government House.

Dear Sir:-

With further reference to the case of No. 1516
Cpl. George Small, and in reply to your letter of Jan. 3rd, I am sorry to state that this Department is unable to grant any assistance in a case of this kind. Government moneys issued by this Department are all governed by rules and regulations laid down by the Government and cover only such matters as pay and allowances in connection with military service.

This would appear to be entirely a civil matter and such a thing as might, perhaps, properly be referred to the Member for Copley's electoral district, or to the local Magistrate or J.P. of Moreton's Hr.

I am returning the correspondence herewith, please.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,
