June 21, 1917.

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that information, with respect to the gravesite of No. 1626, Private G. Small, has now been received from the Pay and Record Office of the First Newfoundland Regiment, London.

The General Officer Commanding, 5th Corps, British Expeditionary Force, reports that Private Small was buried West of Y Ravine, No Man's Land, British Front, on the 23rd of April, 1917.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Robert J. Small,
Lewisporte.

C.R. 1626^{100.}

November 23rd, 1916.

Dear Sir,

For some time past the Imperial Government have been making enquiries in relation to those men of the First Newfoundland Regiment who have been reported missing since the action of the 1st July. I very much regret to state, however, that from the correspondence which has taken place, a copy of which I enclose, it is evident that none of them are Prisoners of War in Germany, and the authorities are, therefore, reluctantly forced to the conclusion that all these gallant men, whose names are given in the enclosed list, and one of whom was very dear to you, were killed in that fateful action on the 1st of July.

I desire to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones, but it will, no doubt, be some consolation to you to think that he, for whom you now mourn, willingly answered the call of King and Country, did his part nobly, and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. Though he has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory, and his name will be inscribed upon the Glorious Roll of Honor, and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. When the victory is won, and Peace again reigns upon the earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that in this glorious achievement he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all at this time.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Mr. Robert J. Small,
Lewisporte.

Colonial Secretary.

GRAND FALLS, September 27th, 1916.

Dear Mr. News:

One of my old parishioners from Lewisporte has asked me to make enquiries about his son, Pte. George S. Small, #1626, who was reported missing after the drive of July first.

A chum of his, Pte. Arch'd Northcott, who was wounded on that same day, has written the family, saying that he saw the name of George S. Small in one of the English papers reported as killed.

Naturally, the parents and friends are very anxious to get particulars, and it seems strange to them that their boy could be so reported in England and that no such news seems to have reached the authorities. ^{here} Of course, there is the possibility of two men bearing the same name. But the number would identify, and we have not the number of the man reported in the English paper.

Will you kindly let me know as soon as possible if any news of #1626 comes to hand. His father is working here at Grand Falls.

Sorry to see that the storm of last Sunday night played such havoc with your beautiful new church.

With kindest regards:

Yours very truly,

W. T. D. Dunn.
