STATEMENT OF PRISONER OF WAR.

#1389, Cpl. Titus Small - Lewisporte

Enlisted - April, Preceded Overseas - April 1915

Place & Date of Capture - Monchy-le-Preux & April 14th, 1917.

Cumstances of Capture - We were scattered about in twos and threes in shell-holes and when the Germans broke through the Essex on our left we were completely surrounded. I was slightly wounded in the leg, and all my ammunition was gone so I was taken prisoner.

Details of Life & Treatment under Capture. - After being in Douai for two days and Fort McDonald, Lille, I was sent to work behind German lines at Marquion for about two months where we were under our own shell fire. We had a very bad time of it here, long hours of hard work and practically no food and we had no blankets or greatcoats. We had to drink watery soup out of old steel helmets or tin cans or anything of that kind that we could pick up and we had one slice of black bread to do us for a whole day's ration. Then I was shifted to Desnain for about 5 weeks road making where conditions were a little better. Then we moved to Anish for about a fortnight working at Harvest. Then we were shifted back nearer the line to MonchyCourt for about two months working on dumps and unloading trucks. I found out the Corporals were not supposed to do this kind of work and so I refused to do anymore. I was <sup>sent</sup> to "clink" for 7 days and fed on bread and water but I did not have to do any more work as long as I was a prisoner. I then went to Bouschesnes for a week, after which I was shifted to Friedericksville in Germany for 3 months. Then I was shifted to Parchim for two months and then to Springharst about 50 kilometres from Hamburg where I was kept for the remainder of my time as a prisoner in Germany. I got parcels from the Red Cross and my letters from home fairly regularly every week while I was in Germany and when the parcels arrived conditions were much better. About 4 days before the armistice was signed two Australians and myself escaped from the Camp and got to Hamburg where we met a German girl who had lived in England for 15 years. She hid us in the cellar of her house until the day the Armistice was signed, when she came and told us and let us go out. The Revolution was on in Hamburg and so nobody took any notice of us in the streets. We went into a restaurant a couple of days afterwards where we got into conversation with a German sailor. He told us that he was one of the crew of a German battleship that was sailing the next day to be handed over to England. We then persuaded him to smuggle us on board, and so we sailed with the German fleet, and landed at the Orkney Islands. On arrival there we were taken by the English fleet of our ship to the "Revenge", the flag-ship of the Fleet, where we were sent up before Admiral Madden. We told him our story and he made us his guests on board the "Revenge" for the night and did everything in his power to give us a good time. He supplied us with money, undercloths and cigars and sent us ashore at Scapa Flo and put us on the Naval train to Ripon. We arrived in London on Dec. 8th. 1918.

C.R. 1389

STATEMENT OF PRISONER OF WAR

#1389, Cpl. Titus Small - Lewisporte

Enlisted - April 1915, Proceeded Overseas - April 1915

Company in France - "D" Company

Place & Date of Capture - Monchy-le-Preux, April 14th/1917

Circumstances of Capture - We were scattered about in twos and threes in shellholes and when the Germans broke through the Essex on our left we were completely surrounded. I was slightly wounded in the leg, and all my ammunition was gone and so I was taken prisoner.

Details of Life & Treatment under capture - After being in Douai for two days and Fort McDonald, Lille, I was sent to work behind the German lines at Marquion for about two months where we were under our own shell fire. We had a very bad time of it here, long hours of hard work and practically no food and we had no blankets or greatcoats. We had to drink watery soup out of our steel helmets or tin cans or anything of that kind that we could pick up and we had one slice of black bread to do us for a whole days ration. Then I was shifted to Duesnain for about 5 weeks road making where conditions were a little better. Then we moved to Anish for about a fortnight working <sup>back</sup> at the Harvest. Then we ~~shift~~ were shifted ~~back~~ nearer the line to MonchyCourt for about two months working on dumps and unloading trucks. I found out that Corporals were not supposed to do this kind of work and so I refused to do anymore. I was sent to "clink" for 7 days and fed on bread and water but I did not have to do any more work as long as I was a prisoner. I then went to Bouschesnes for a week, after which I was shifted to Friedericksville in Germany for 3 months. Then I was shifted to Parchim for two months and then to Springhurst about 50 kilometres from Hamburg where I was kept for the remainder of my stay as a prisoner in Germany. I got my parcels from the Red Cross and my letters from home fairly regularly every week while I was in Germany and when the parcels arrived conditions were much better. About 4 days before the Armistice was signed two Australians and myself escaped from the camp and got to Hamburg where we met a German girl who had lived in England for 15 years. She hid us in the cellar of her house until the day the Armistice was signed, when she came and told us and let us go out. The Revolution was on in Hamburg and so nobody took any notice of us in the streets. We went into a restaurant a couple of days afterwards where we got into conversation with a German sailor. He told us that he was one of the crew of a German battleship that was sailing the next day to be handed over to England. We then persuaded him to smuggle us on board, and so we sailed with the German fleet and landed at the Orkney Islands. On arrival there we were taken by the English pilot of our ship to the "Revenge", the flag-ship of the Fleet, where we were sent up before Admiral Madden. We told him our story and he made us his guests on board the "Revenge" for the night, and did everything in his power to give us a good time. He supplied us with money, underclothes and cigars and sent us ashore at Scapa Flo and put us on the Naval train to Ripon. We arrived in London on Dec. 8th. 1918

Descriptive Return of a Soldier Discharged on Account of Disability.

INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.

This section should be completed in the Hospital at which a man is attending at the time of his examination by a Medical Board, or, if the man is not in Hospital, by the Medical Officer of the Unit or Command Depot. The Soldier should be given a full opportunity of examining it, as, if awarded a pension, his subsequent identification depends on his confirming this declaration. The "Rank," "Station" and "Date" should be in his own handwriting.

The form will then be attached to the Proceedings of the man's Medical Board and will be forwarded to the O. I. C. Records together with the remainder of the man's documents.

Changes occurring in the description subsequent to the date of admission to pension should be noted in red ink.
