July 13, 1917.

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that a report has now been received from the Newfoundland Pay and Record Office, London, which states that the Officer Commanding the Third Army Grave Registration Unit reports, on June 15th last, that No. 1923, Private John S. Snow, who was previously presumed dead, was killed in action on July 1st, 1916.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Robert Snow,
Water Street West,
Harbor Grace.

November 23rd, 1916.

Dear Sir,

For some time past the Imperial Government have been making enquiries in relation to those men of the First Newfoundland Regiment who have been reported missing since the action of the 1st July. I very much regret to state, however, that from the correspondence which has taken place, a copy of which I enclose, it is evident that none of them are Prisoners of War in Germany, and the authorities are, therefore, reluctantly forced to the conclusion that all these gallant men, whose names are given in the enclosed list, and one of whom was very dear to you, were killed in that fateful action on the 1st July.

I desire to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones, but it will, no doubt, be some consolation to you to think that he, for whom you now mourn, willingly answered the call of King and Country, did his part nobly, and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. Though he has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory, and his name will be inscribed upon the Glorious Roll of Honour, and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. When the victory is won and Peace again reigns upon the earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that in this glorious achievement he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Jan. 6, 1918.

Dear Sir,--

Mr. Robert Snow, of this town, has asked me to write you respecting further information of his son, Private John Snow #1223 of the Newfoundland Regiment, who is supposed to have been killed at Monchy, or elsewhere, on the 14th of April, 1917.

Mr. Snow received lately from the Militia Department, St. John's, the identification disk showing the name and number of his son. The disk was the only article sent him, and at first he did not know what that meant. I explained the matter to him, and he expressed his wish to have further information, if such can be had. He would like to have all the information that can be obtained.

Would you, therefore, enquire further, and let me or Mr. Snow have whatever additional information you can secure concerning his son, and the circumstances under which the disk was recovered.

Private John Snow was the second son of Mr. Snow to give up his life in this great struggle, he having lost another son, Samuel, in a Canadian regiment at Vimy Ridge.

Hoping to have an early reply from you,

I am, yours very truly,

Major Tinewell,

Sir: 1923 Pte. J. Snow, Killed in Action 1/7/16.

With reference your letter of 6/1/18 (1411) enquiring for particulars regarding the death of the above-named Soldier, the facts of the case are:

On 1/7/16 Pte. Snow was posted as Missing and subsequently, after thirty weeks had elapsed, he was presumed to have died on or shortly after that date, all efforts to trace him as being alive or a prisoner of war in enemy hands having failed. On 15/6/17, however, nearly a year after the action in which Pte. Snow was engaged his remains were found in No Man's Land by the 3rd Army Mobile Graves Registration Unit and buried on that date. Taking into consideration the length of time between the action and the date on which 1923, Pte. Snow's remains were discovered, the disc, which is of a special composition, would be the only article of effects likely to withstand the conditions imposed upon it.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
