1747 Pte. S. Stacey, M.M.

"For conspicuous gallantry on and after 20th November. Repeatedly by day and night he carried wounded to the aid post and thence into MARCOING, under very heavy shell fire. While in the town, he sought out, on his own initiative, the Battalion rations which had been scattered by shell fire, and carried food and water forward to the front line by daylight through heavy shell ~~fire~~ and machine gun fire. His repeatedly journeys to the aid post with water considerably improved the chances of many wounded men. His work was a fine example to all ranks.

Dear Mr. Stacey,

In answer to your letter of the 11th inst., in which you request particulars of the death of your son, the late 1747 L/C Alfred Stacey, and also making inquiries about the Military Medal won by him.

It is lamentable that no particulars have been forthcoming up to the present, but apparently none were obtainable. However, we are telegraphing the Record Office, London, asking them to make every possible enquiry as to the manner in which he met his death. As to his Military Medal, I may say that it has not yet been forwarded to us from the other side, as soon as we receive it, we shall present it to you with a report of the act performed by your gallant son.

A period of six months must elapse from the date of a man's death in the field, before his papers and accounts are forwarded from London. As this time is now about up in your son's case, we shall likely receive his papers in the near future, when his estate and effects will be handed over to you.

Yours faithfully,
