Dear Mr. Rendell,

In accordance with our conversation in re Strickland family, I am asking you to be good enough to do something for the deserted woman and her two children. She has no support whatever, except her own hard ~~working~~ ~~hands~~ and any little assist~~ance~~ ~~you~~ give her from time to time.

Her children are too young to work.

This ~~is~~ miserable condition has been going on for ~~just~~ four years and if you can do anything I shall be greatly obliged. If your committee decides to pay over Benjamin's money to me "in trust", I shall be glad manage it for her and give her monthly payments.

I am still out of town, but have headed this letter with my home address, so that there may be no miscarriage of correspondence.

An early reply will greatly oblige.

Yours faithfully,
J. Brown.
