Dear Madam:

I am in receipt of your letter of August 13th. The inscription which you sent in July for the Headstone of your son was received in due course and forwarded to London. When the Military Cemeteries are completed, photographs of all Newfoundland Graves will be taken and sent to the next of kin. It will be some little time before these photographs can be procured, because apart from deceased Newfoundland soldiers, the Imperial War Graves Commission has to handle the graves of all deceased Imperial and Colonial soldiers.

Yours faithfully,
