C.R. 1433

Your Excellency Governor;

I wish to ask you if you could do one thing in this world for me, and that is to get my Son home from Scotland so that I will see him I die "Your Honour" he was my youngest child, and it was a heart-breaking thing to me when he enlisted for war. In fact it was almost impossible to me that he would ever see war, because he was a child that was weak and could not stand anything. ⁽¹²⁾ he was awful nervous.

I am broken hearted over him. I did not try to stop him because I thought with the help of God that the war would be over long before this. he was just two years left me in April, and it is the longest two years I have ever spent since I came to the world. If I was a strong-hearted woman that could stand anything, I would not mind it. but "Your Honour" I am sixty three years of age, and if you saw me to day, "Your Honour" you would say "I was seventy he was my youngest son and it will break my heart for God to take me without seeing him again for he was as good a son to a mother as could be. I have another son "your honour" who went to St John's also to enlist but was turned back unfit for service. he was crazy to get with his youngest brother, and now he is going to Canada he says he is going to join the Canadians. he is out of his time with me he says that before a month's time he will be with his brother.

So I am left alone with no one to look after me in my old age. I have to walk about half a mile to go to another house
to sleep at night fearing that anything would happen to me during the night. When my husband died I was left in care of the youngest child he was taken from the trenches
the 16th of January and put in hospital and as far as I know he is there yet. So now I put myself in your hands

Honorable J. R. Bennett
Minister of Militia

Hon Sir:

I am a widow, my son Private John Sullivan No 11433 has been at the front going on four years. It is on him I have to depend for my support. I have another son who has offered for the Regiment but was not accepted because of heart trouble; he is therefore unable to do any heavy work. Therefore it is on my soldier son that I have to depend for my present support and future maintenance.

Up to the present I have not obtained the separation allowance which the law allows; but I assure you Honorable Sir that I am in deep need of it, as I do not know at what moment my son who is with me may be ill on my hands. Will you please send me the necessary papers that I may fill them in and return to you.

Yours Respectfully,
Mrs Timothy Sullivan

June, 6th. 1918.

Mrs. Timothy Sullivan,

Dear Sir.-

Referring to your letter of 15th.,I beg to state for the information of Mrs Sullivan,that allotments only commence from the regimental pay day previous to the date on which the volunteers leave for England.

You are aware that these allotments are a portion of the soldiers' regular pay,which they instruct us to pay to certain parties named by them. Previous to sailing they receive all pay due them, and no payment under allotment is made until after they have gone.

I trust I have made myself clear.

Yours truly,

Deputy Paymaster.

Dear Sir

There was a young man from here named John Sullivan who joined your Regiment early in April 1915.

This chap was home in June and sailed from St Johns (I believe June 20th) in last muster to join Regiment at "Stots Camp"

When home he promised his Mother (a widow) that he would send her some money, but that she could not get it until after he sailed for England.

This deserving woman allowed the father of this John to go as volunteer also, but by some mischance he (Daniel) did not pass the Doctor at St Johns, but returned home lately. While he was at St Johns this Danl. was told by John that he John had arranged that their Mother (Widow Timothy Sullivan nee Mary Hickey) was to get 25^{/-} and beside that she (his Mother) would get 80^{/-} a day every month end. So far widow Sullivan has not got any money altho she needs it. Kindly have matter looked up and report to me Othge Yours truly Richd Mee Donnell Esq.
