3316 H. Tavernor.

Dear Sir,

The man named above joined the Re-establishment School on September 17th. Before that time he had drawn two months of his War Service Gratuity. He has lately bought clothes, and as a consequence of his having to pay for the same, he has dropped behind with his Board bill. As the Re-establishment Committee has decided to recommend to you for advancement of Thirty five dollars ($35.00) against War Service Gratuity for the men to provide themselves with overcoats, I hereby recommend the advancement of the amount named above to Mr. Tavernor.

Yours faithfully,
