Dear Sir:-

A friend of mine Mr. Jos. Parsons whose only son, No. <sup>1708</sup> 1720 Pte. Chas Parsons was killed on October 12th, 1916, would like to know whether his son's body was ever found and buried, and if so would it be possible to obtain a photograph of that grave. As you are so well acquainted with the burial grounds of our men and being engaged in work upon them, I thought you might be able to supply the desired information or the name of the person who could.

I remain,
Yours truly,

Dear Sir Walter:-

With reference to the case of Sergeant Temple, whom you sent down to me on March 28 with a letter bespeaking for him the best consideration of the trustees of the Patriotic Fund, I beg to say that we decided, at a meeting last night, that, inasmuch as Sergeant Temple had been two years at the war and as his wife had not made any application for help from the Patriotic Fund during all that time, but had contrived to get along on his allotment to her, we would make a special grant to them of one hundred dollars, which would be the equivalent of a dollar a week for two years, which would be the least we would have to pay if she had applied for help during his absence. We hope you will consider this a satisfactory solution of the problem.

Yours sincerely,

Hon. Secretary.

I am in receipt of your kind letter of the fourth and am pleased to learn of the decision of the Patriotic Committee. Your Excellency's kind efforts on my behalf went a long way towards obtaining that decision and I shall ever feel deeply grateful to you for the same. We are rather unfortunate at present in having illness in the house, but I hope things will be alright again shortly. Thanking you again for all past favours I would close by saying how glad I am, to have had the honour of doing my bit in the fighting forces and ask that Your Excellency will please

The Honourable

J R Bennett Esq M.A.
Colonial Secretary

Dear Sir

Your Rectors wife, Mrs Butler showed my Daughter Mrs J V Temple, wife of Corporal
J V Temple No 232 1st Afld Regiment Co C. a letter from you addressed Mrs Hannal, Temple, Sandy Point, stating that Corporal J V Temple was in the stationary Hospital at Mudros, West, suffering from Debility, as he has been at the front since the Regt left England, all through the Gallipoli campaign. It is not to be wondered at if he is run down some. My daughter asked me to write you and ask that any further news that may reach you may be kindly sent direct to her, and to thank you for your kind promptness.

I have the honor to be Sir

Your obedient Servant
E Whistler

All Messages Sent are Subject to the Following Conditions:

The Management may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the N. P. T. or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the N. P. T., they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The N. P. T. shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the N. P. T. over the Message shall be deemed to have entirely ceased for the purposes of these Conditions at any point where, in the course of the transit of the Message to its destination, it may be entrusted by the N. P. T. (and the N. P. T. shall have full power so to entrust the Message) for further transmission by or through any system, service, or line of Telegraph belonging to or worked by any administration or authority not controlled by the N. P. T. exclusively, although worked as part of or in connection with the Telegraphic system or service of the N. P. T.

I request that the following Telegram may be forwarded according to the foregoing Conditions, by which I agree to abide.
