Sir.

I have been in Convalescent Hospital for about 7 weeks during which time I have received 40 francs & as I am short of money I take this liberty to write asking you if you can favour me by sending me £ 2.

If you look up my account you will see that I have £ 30 or £ 40 due me; I have been on active service 11 months during which time I have never had any settlement. I am aware that settlements are made at Pay & Records offices only & would not wish you fret for the fact that I need the money badly.

Thanking you in anticipation & apologizing for the trouble I am putting you to.

As you are probably aware, it is not the custom of this office to remit money to soldiers serving with an Expeditionary Force, and the above letter is quoted for whatever action may appear desirable, please.
