December 21, 1915.

Dear Madam,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received a message from the Record Office, London, intimating that your son, Private James Joseph Tibbo, had, on the 1st December, made the supreme sacrifice, laying down his life in defence of his King and Country.

On behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, I desire to express to you the sincerest sympathy in your time of sorrow. But though we feel the parting and though the heart is heavy with its loss, yet it is a glorious thing to think that your gallant boy early responded to the call of duty and made his stand for the establishment of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty upon the earth. We are all proud of our brave and noble boys, but no less do we esteem the unselfish fathers and mothers who so willingly gave their lads when the call of duty came. Though your boy has laid down his earthly weapon, he wears the soldier's Crown of Victory and his name is inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and will be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow countrymen. When the end of this war comes and an honourable and abiding peace will have been established, it will be your proud thought that your dear boy did to the utmost of his ability to bring about such result. I trust that the Great Father may give you of His love and comfort at this time.

Believe me to be,

Yours sympathetically,

Colonial Secretary.
