Sir,

I have the honour to state that in consultation with Sir Joseph Outerbridge and the Hon. Sir Edgar R. Bowring, it has been tentatively agreed that, subject to Your Excellency's approval, for distinctive purposes my designation should be:

Chief Paymaster & Officer i/c Records,
Newfoundland Contingent.

In many instances I am so addressed and recognised by the War Office and other sources, in correspondence and otherwise; whilst in others, more particularly apart from the War Office, I am sometimes addressed as Staff Paymaster or Regimental Paymaster. It is naturally desirable that a uniform designation should be maintained, and especially in view of additional units.

I may add that it is not intended that the foregoing should affect my Pay & Allowances.

I have the honour to be,

With reference to the latter portion of my cablegram No. 609, 16/8/16, I have to thank you for granting me leave of absence, which I am taking as soon as may be consistent with the conduct of affairs.

I may say that in view of the necessity of an officer acting temporarily, by arrangement with Lt.-Col. Whitaker, Lieutenant Harvey will be here during my absence.

Unfortunately Anderson, whilst away on short leave, was taken ill, but I hope he will be ready for duty again on Monday next. Meanwhile I am much inconvenienced by his absence, his services being especially valuable.

I hesitate to be off duty altogether, but warnings as to the necessity of a brief rest are plainly indicated.

His Excellency

The Governor;

Following upon our conversation of this morning in relation to allowances to Captain Timewell, I desire to suggest, for the consideration of Your Excellency whether it would not be wise to communicate with Captain Timewell at the earliest possible moment that it is the opinion of the Government, after carefully considering the question of allowances made him, that the first order, namely Field Allowance 75 cents per day and pay of $3 a day as Captain, is ample remuneration for the services rendered by him, having regard to the rate paid other officers; and that, in addition, his expenses when incurred in travelling on the business of the Regiment while in England or elsewhere, certified to by his proper officer, shall also be paid him; but that the One Pound per day allowed was never contemplated as a continuous payment. Further, in the opinion of the Government, having regard to the very large quantity of the amount of the War Fund which will have to be administered in this country by payment to the relations of the members of the Regiment here, through one of our public offices, there will be no need for him to open an office in England or at the front. The amount of actual work performed is not great, considering that he pays the money, not to the individual men, but to the Captains of the various Companies, who in turn pay the men under them and take the regular receipts. The Bank of Montreal has already opened a branch of their business at Salisbury Plain and I have no doubt would be glad to keep his account and do it free of charge; not alone while the men are there, but when they are at the front. When at the front there will be no difficulty in his drawing the money from the nearest bank in France or Belgium or Germany and get it through the Bank of Montreal in London.

individual

Under these circumstances it seems to me that Captain Timewell should mess with the other officers and remain permanently with them wherever they may be.

Prime Minister.

October 22nd, 1914.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's memorandum of the 21st inst. respecting the status and emoluments of Captain Timewell, Regimental Paymaster, First Newfoundland Regiment.

Ministers note Your Excellency's remarks regarding the responsible nature of the duties which are performed by Captain Timewell and the remuneration which you consider should be allowed him in respect of his services, in addition to his pay as Regimental Paymaster, and they agree that, as Captain Timewell is charged with the control of large funds for which he is responsible to the Civil Government and subject to the control of the Auditor General, being in fact the Accountant and Cashier of an important though temporary department of the Civil Administration, the additional remuneration suggested is not unreasonable.

I therefore enclose, for Your Excellency's approval, a Minute of Committee of Council sanctioning the payment to Captain Timewell, in his capacity of Accountant to the Newfoundland Government for Military Administration, of an allowance of £1 per diem, in addition to his regimental pay and travelling expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties.

Status of Captain Timewell, Regimental Paymaster,
First Newfoundland Regiment.

I have given careful consideration to the question of the status and emoluments of Captain Timewell.

Captain Timewell is graded as a Regimental Paymaster and, as such, will receive £3 as pay and cents 75 as field allowance, per diem, just as any other officer of his standing under the Regulations regarding pay which have been adopted for the Newfoundland Contingent.

Captain Timewell, however, is in addition, as Officer charged with the control of large funds for which he is responsible to the Civil Government and subject to the control of the Auditor General. He is in fact the Accountant and Cashier of an important, though temporary, department of the Civil Administration.

In this capacity he should I think receive a personal allowance of £1 per diem for the period in which he is so employed, which is practically for the duration of the War. He will have to maintain himself without the advantage of living at the Regimental Mess during the time when the Contingent is at the front and is therefore put to expense which the other Officers have not to incur. Under such conditions, it has been the practice both for Governments and for private employers, to reckon the cost of living in England at £1 per diem, plus travelling expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties.

When we consider that Captain Timewell is, as the Agent of the Government of Newfoundland, in control and administration of so large a sum as £400,000 a year, it cannot be said that the Government is not making a good bargain in securing the services of a chartered accountant as Cashier of this important spending Department.

I recommend for the consideration of Ministers the adoption of an order sanctioning the payment to Captain Timewell in his capacity of Accountant to the Newfoundland Government for Military Administration, an allowance of £1 per diem, plus his regimental pay and plus travelling expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties.

Under such conditions, it has been the practice both for Governments and for private employers, to reckon the cost of living in England at £1 per diem, plus travelling expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties.

When we consider that Captain Timewell is, as the Agent of the Government of Newfoundland, in control and administration of so large a sum as £400,000 a year, it cannot be said that the Government is not making a good bargain in securing the services of a chartered accountant as Cashier of this important spending Department.

I recommend for the consideration of Ministers the adoption of an order sanctioning the payment to Captain Timewell in his capacity of Accountant to the Newfoundland Government for Military Administration, an allowance of £1 per diem, plus his regimental pay and plus travelling expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties.

I do not see that I can do anything with this, as you may be aware this Officer is reported wounded and possibly he may be returning to this country. Meanwhile I suggest you ask for a detailed account and send it to me, and I will see what further can be done.

Three Officer's Web Equipments, medium size, have been ordered from Fortnum & Mason, who have been requested to forward them direct to you. They will be charged as you desire. Unfortunately these have advanced to £4/4/-, inclusive of haversack, and the best that could be done was a reduction of 2/- = £4/2/- nett.

Since Fortnum & Mason were specially nominated, purchases have been made from them, and consequently prices have not been tested with other suppliers.

For some time I have been anxious to pay you a visit, but pressure of work here has so far prevented me.
