Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 27th February, I beg to say that the attestation paper, signed by your late brother, No. 2248, Private Andrew Tobin, upon his enlistment, gave the name of his uncle, Mr. Thomas Tobin, as his next of kin. As no alteration in this respect had been notified to this Department, until the receipt of your letter, any notifications regarding him were, of course, sent to Mr. Thomas Tobin. I have now caused your name to be entered in the records and, in future, communications regarding your late brother's estate, or other matters, will be directed to you.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary.

Miss Annie Tobin,

February 8, 1917.

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a message from the Record Office, London, intimating that your nephew, Private Andrew Tobin, had died at the 2nd London Casualty Clearing Station in France on the 31st January, from bronchitis.

Permit me to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, sincere sympathy in your time of sorrow. But though we feel the parting and though the heart is heavy with its loss, yet it is a glorious thing to think that your gallant boy early responded to the Call of Duty and made his stand for the establishment of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty upon the Earth. We are all proud of our brave and noble boys but no less do we esteem the unselfish fathers and mothers who so willingly gave their boys when the Call of Duty came. Though your boy has laid down his earthly weapons he wears the soldier's Crown of Victory and his name is inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and will be held in fragrant memory by all his fellowcountrymen. When the end of this war comes and an honourable and abiding peace will have been established it will be your proud thought that your dear boy did to the utmost of his ability to bring about such result.

I trust that the Great Father may give you of his love and comfort at this time.

Believe me to be,
Yours sympathetically,

Mr. Thomas Tobin,
Great St. Lawrence.

Colonial Secretary.
