March 13, 1916.

Dear Madam,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a telegram intimating that your son, No. 1800, Private John Thomas Tobin, had died of measles in Scotland on the 1st February. Permit me to express to you, on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in your sorrow. One cannot too deeply mourn the loss of such a brave soldier, but there is consolation in knowing that he did his duty honestly and well and gave his life for the cause of Liberty and the upholding of the Empire. Though he has now laid down his earthly weapons, he has assumed the crown of victory as a soldier who died in the defence of his country. We are proud to have such brave young men and we rejoice also that we have such noble fathers and mothers who so willingly give up their sons when the call of King and Country comes to them. When the fight has been won and the reign of Peace and Truth and Righteousness has again been established upon earth, it will be no small comfort to you to realize that your brave boy did all he could in order to bring this about. His name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his countrymen.

I trust that the comfort of the Great Father of us all may be given to you at this time. With my warmest and fullest sympathy, believe me to be

Your obedient servant,

Mrs. Charles Brake,
Burin North.

Deputy Colonial Secretary.
